Travel Itinerary

From 23rd-25th 2026, the 27th edition of Indiasoft will take place in New Delhi, India's largest and oldest trade fair for the IT and electronics industry. The Electronic and Software Export Promotion Council (ESC) invites decision-makers, buyers, start-ups, and Mittelstand investors to a personal impression of India's economic wonder "Amrit Kaal".

For the digital transformation, Europe needs India's innovative strength and knowledge. In this delegation trip, we bring the new India closer and show the possibilities of cooperation of the Make in India Mittelstand motion, finding work forces and talents. India has a lot of successful entrepreneurs who are still looking for investment in Europe.

The Cities of the Delegation-Tour

We have suggestions for your itinerary, but you are free to plan your own travel as long as you make sure to join the event dates and are present on the Indiasoft official events. During the events we take care of all the local organization. If you have special wishes for matchmaking or want to get introduced to a special party, it will be our pleasure to assist.

Business Matchmaking tour into the modern India

Our delegation tour is a discovery trip that concentrates on matchmaking for new acquaintances. In the individual locations we will have special events in cooperation with the local ministries and chambers of commerce to allow meeting interesting local enterprises and experts with mutual introduction and a good opportunity for speed dating. We shall take the opportunity to simultaneously show you the magic of the new India that transforms in breath-taking speed to the modern. If you wish special local contacts, we will do our very best to liaise you with the right people.

Suggested Destination where we can arrange meetings according to your needs.

Bangalore

Bangalore has long been known as the "Garden City" chosen by British Colonialists as their headquarter due to the nice weather in 920 meters altitude. Being a small village in 1990 it is now the "Electronic City" and India's place where the big international firms settle.

Hyderabad

Hyderabad is the old city in the South and has been the head quarter of the Persian Moghuls. The landmark is Golkonda, one of the largest fortresses in the world. Today the city is dominated by the district "Cyberabad", India's Silicon Valley where most Indian IT giants and internationals like Microsoft or Amazon have their headquarters.

Visakhapatnam (Vizag)

Vizag is India's second largest seaport opposite to Mumbai on the eastern coast. It is a fast-growing start-up hub of the state of Andhra Pradesh with the ambition to be a centre of future high-tech development with good investment perspective.

Chandigarh

Chandigarh is in the north of India, a union territory and capital of two states at the same time: Punjab and Haryana. It is well known by architects as the new town had been designed in 1955 by Le Corbusier as the city of the future.

Bhubaneswar

Bhubaneswar had been a destination for German industry back then in the 1960ties when they expanded the steel industries. Now the city is a newly transformed high-tech city.

New Delhi

New Delhi Capital Region (NCR) is next to Mumbai one of the largest cities in the world and became a very modern Western oriented city. In India's capital all big decisions are prepared and made. Technology firms are settled around in the Greater Delhi area including neighbouring Noida and Gurgaon.

Delhi is the starting points for visiting Taj Mahal (Agra).

Jaipur

Jaipur was once the capital of the united empire of the Maharajas and is known as touristic highlight. Jaipur is number 5 in the ranking of Indian IT centres where you find a lot of specialized technology firms and start-ups.

Pune

Pune is the city of the sciences, approx. 1.5 driving hours from Mumbai Airport and the place to go when Mumbai is too crowded. Pune is known as "City of the Germans" due to the presence of Volkswagen and the OSHO ("Bhagwan").

Chennai (Madras)

Chennai is next to Hyderabad and Bangalore the most important IT hub of India's IT. A little bit hot and hazy for Europeans but conditioned by Christians and hence strongly influenced by the Occident.
